As the Food Bank's Online Communications Manager, much of my time is spent working out how to best communicate about our mission, programs, statistics and more so that you, our supporter, understand all aspects of the Food Bank's work and the state of hunger in our city.

For those of you who read this blog, our website, e-newsletters, print newsletter, reports or more, I hope you feel we're doing a good job. (If you ever have questions, post a comment on this blog! We'll definitely reply, and may even respond with a blog post that addresses your question.)

In addition to making sure that you understand the Food Bank's work — the Food Bank wants to make sure we understand you, and are able to help you through the process of learning about our organization. To that end, we recently created a Supporter Survey.

Once you complete our Supporter Survey, we will immediately direct you to a web page providing information and links corresponding to your specific interests and goals. In addition, we will include information relevant to your interests in our future communications. So, please take a couple minutes to take our survey, and let us help you learn more about our efforts to end hunger throughout the five boroughs.

We look forward to hearing from you!
